DD Rules: or at least he reckons that he has the results to prove it. In the Mystery Semi at Bonny Hills, DD got a 2nd, Craig Duncan a 4th and in the other Semi, Brent got a 4th. I guess that proves that the father can out surf his siblings!

On the nose Well not quite tip time, but a dog did get the better of John JB Brailey recently. After a surf, he put his board into his board bag as usual. Next time he got it out there was a stench that made the treatment works at Bateau Bay smell average. Moral of the lesson is to never lay your board on the ground where a dog has done his business!

Greetings,

It's that time of the year again, The Annual, Shelly Beach v's Ocean Beach Charity Comp, next Sunday 21st September. We need a good roll up to ensure we take home the coveted trophy again this year. All we need is some creative surfing, creative judging and a bit of luck and the trophy will be OURS!! Big'n, Sharky and Gidget will be organising the day, as I will be out of the country.

Speaking of being out of the country, I am sure Barney and the Crack are having a great time, travelling around Europe, although we haven't received a postcard yet. I have been working that hard lately, I am due for another holiday. Well, Joan has been working hard and I have to accompany her to Bali to carry her luggage, along with Rapper & Lynn, China Mick & Karen, Poppy & Colleen. Someone has to do the dirty work and it might as well be me.

The Mal de Mer at Bonny Hills is over for another year and Shelly Beach was well represented with entries in just about every division. The swell was up over the weekend making for some interesting surfing during the heats. Janice and Julie turned up on the Saturday but we couldn't convince them to enter the open ladies heat. I think they said, it wasn't perfect enough, unlike Crescent the day before. Sharky, the magician, managed to get to the semis of the 0/45's without getting his toes wet? Ask him for some pointers.

Congratulations to all our finalists, Ben Liddy and DD in the Mystery. Louis and Ben Finno (Juniors), Blake (open 9ft), Rabbi Marty, Ben Finno, Blake (retro), Marty (old mal). Over the weekend, the announcer had trouble pronouncing the Duncan boys names. We had "Dirk Duncan", "Derek Duncan", "Brett Duncan" and at the Preso, "Derek Dugan". What is it with these Scottish names, so hard to pronounce.

It is good to see all our young crew turning up at Bonny Hills. They all have a good time and really enjoy the surfing and the weekend. I think they will have to book a cabin in someone else's name next year as Craig (barred) Duncan received the DCB (don't come back).

Get organized for next years Mal de Mer as it is their 20th Anniversary. Keep the third weekend in August free.

This comp is our last comp for the year. We managed to get through 10 comps without missing any. Thanks Hue. If the September comp goes ahead, we will have a social comp in October to round off the year. Format to be decided.

Quote of the year.

Mick Hinwood to China Mick Locklee at Sport and Talk Friday, about the Olympics. 'China, are you qualified to talk about China?'

China Mick, 'I have had three beers, I am qualified to talk about anything!'

John Brailey seen trying out a new surf wax called Stinky Poo! Apparently it sticks to everything, even your board cover. See J.B. for details.

The social committee has been on the ball with the organization for the annual preso well underway. This year it is back at the Golf Club on 22nd November and is a Hawaiian theme Night. So dig out your best tropical gear and come and enjoy a great night.

Our Annual General Meeting will be held on 1st Wednesday in November and all positions will be up for election, so pop along and have a say in the running of the club. Nominations accepted beforehand or on the night. See Bg'n for details.

It's been a great year and a big thank you to all the members of the various committees in the club and also to those who help out. Without the commitment of these people, the club would not function as well as it does.

On behalf of the club, I wish to take this opportunity to express our sincere condolences to China Mick on the passing of his father. All of our thoughts are with Mick, Karen, Ryan and Cameron at this time.
